

Please favor The Dispatch with a
Trial Job Printing Order.

Artistic Execution. Right Prices

Terms: $1.00 a Year.

The Mahoning Dispatch.

An Independent Family Journal—Devoted to the Interests of All Classes and Nationalities.

WE HOPE TO HAVE

The assistance of all our friends in extending the circulation of The Mahoning Dispatch. Will you not help us add at least one new name to the list?

Invariably in Advance

VOL. XXXIII.

CANFIELD, MAHONING COUNTY, O., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1909.

NO. 37.

WASHINGTONVILLE LOCAL GLEANINGS

By Peter M. Herold.

Saturday was pension voucher day.

Mrs. Harvey Beck of Columbiana was here Saturday.

Joe L. Fitzpatrick was in Youngstown Saturday on business.

The chain machine is now in working order at the J. D. Smith mine.

Mrs. S. B. Wilson and daughter Ephie were in Youngstown Saturday.

Miss Effie Welkart of Leetonia was here Friday calling on friends.

Herb Tellow has quit farming and is selling his stock and farm tools today.

Miss Lydia King is selling her stock of millinery at greatly reduced prices.

Geo. Watson killed a 500-pound porker for Thos. Bailey last week Wednesday.

E. S. Freed was in Youngstown Saturday having his teachers' certificate renewed.

Among your selections for winter and summer reading include The Mahoning Dispatch.

Mrs. Harry Schmick of Leetonia spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Hannah Souffier.

J. B. Frederick is receiving taxes at the F. & M. bank in Leetonia, thus saving car fare to Lisbon.

G. W. Allen has introduced gas into his tenorial parlor and into Atkinson & Paisley's pool rooms.

A son was born Thursday to Chas. O. Beach and wife at home of her mother, Mrs. James Rohrer.

Mayor Moore and wife were in Salem Sunday, Hinson looking after some delinquent names upon his docket.

If the land in this school district can be appraised "at its true value in money," then a levy of 10 mills will suffice.

Squire Johnson went to New York last Friday to meet his nephew who could not pass the immigrant examination.

The state board of pardons at Columbus has refused to grant a pardon to Ira Marietta, a life prisoner from Columbiana county.

There is a wireless rumor that the ladies will serve hot waffles and maple molasses Saturday evening, Dec. 18. I'll be there.

Mrs. Susanah Gilbert and her daughter, Mrs. Laura Cochran, returned from Middletown Saturday, accompanied by Miss M. C. Bilger.

Arthur Brown of Wampum, Pa., was here a few hours on business Saturday and called at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Geo. Simpson.

Fred Longbottom of Sharon, Allen, Dairymple and Miss Elsie Fisher of Youngstown and Harry Souffier of Niles were home over Sunday.

Samuel Zimmerman, aged 66, grandfather of C. S. Anjemeyer, died about two miles south of Leetonia, Sunday morning. Funeral Tuesday afternoon.

A. L. Taylor, wife and son were in Lisbon Sunday at the home of his grand uncle and aunt, Jason and Mary Green, who are approaching their century mark.

Miss Barbara Rhodes of Allegheny, after spending a week with her mother in Greenford, visited here over Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Alice Eyster.

Miss Jane Platt, a recent arrival from England, and William Sommerville of Salem, were quietly married at Lisbon by Squire John McVicker on the 2nd of this month.

Mrs. Louise Vignon and son Paul, Mrs. Frances Grim, Mrs. Augusta Piller and Mrs. Chas. Vignon were in Youngstown Saturday shopping with Dispatch advertisers.

Myron Davis and J. L. Fitzpatrick have had gas introduced into their dwellings and will be fitted by J. E. Gilbert. Mrs. Alice Eyster and C. H. Welkart were fitted up Saturday.

A petition for the pardon of Harry Schmick was circulated here last week and in the churches of Leetonia the Sunday previous. People now think that Harry should be set at liberty.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General De Graw, who has supervision of rural routes, suggests the advisability of labeling Christmas presents "not to be opened until Christmas day," and sending them several days in advance.

The most pathetic and logical account of the mine disaster at Cherry, Ill., we have yet seen appeared in last week's issue of the Appeal to Reason, published at Girard, Kan., written by Charles Lincoln Phifer a native of Cherry.

David Levine rode the Odd Fellows' goat Monday night.

C. E. Berolette was laid off work a few days by sickness.

Emil Mathey is still suffering from inflammatory rheumatism.

Yosh W. Wang and wife of Leetonia called to see Mrs. Susan Gilbert Sunday.

Lewis James has moved his household goods here from Steubenville.

There will be a general meeting of the Co-op society next Tuesday night for the election of officers.

Mrs. M. J. Herron and daughter Helen spent the past week with friends and relatives in Canton, Waynesburg and Mineral City.

Samuel Carrier, wife, son Charley and daughter Lillian of Sobring spent Sunday at the home of his brother, Lambert Carrier.

Mrs. Wm. Bowker is at the home of her son, Leo Bowker, in Carrollton, on account of the arrival of twins, a son and a daughter.

John D. Felcht has taken a vacation from John D. Rockefeller's pumping station, working in the John D. Smith mine here.

Miss Tillie Herron is visiting her parents west of town, and her brother, Jas. Herron, is also at home again from his work at John Hack's.

The boys report an enjoyable bill of fare at Geo. Dunn's turkey roast Monday night. A divy was made of the funds in the football treasury among its members.

A Union street is now in the swim. Besides those already named as having introduced gas can be named the mayor's office and dwelling and the residence of Mrs. James Rohrer.

Mrs. J. L. Fitzpatrick spent last week with her sister, Mrs. S. C. Tompkins in Garrettsville, with Mrs. Emma McDonald in Aurora, and spent a day with friends in Niles on her way home.

The Lutheran ladies gave an enjoyable supper at Fisher's hall Saturday night and so popular was the menu that it was all disposed of by 9 o'clock. The social feature was no less enjoyable than the gross receipts, which amounted to $77.87.

Some members of the Annanias club has refused to grant a pardon to Ira Marietta, a life prisoner from Columbiana county.

There is a wireless rumor that the ladies will serve hot waffles and maple molasses Saturday evening, Dec. 18. I'll be there.

Mrs. Susanah Gilbert and her daughter, Mrs. Laura Cochran, returned from Middletown Saturday, accompanied by Miss M. C. Bilger.

Arthur Brown of Wampum, Pa., was here a few hours on business Saturday and called at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Geo. Simpson.

Fred Longbottom of Sharon, Allen, Dairymple and Miss Elsie Fisher of Youngstown and Harry Souffier of Niles were home over Sunday.

Samuel Zimmerman, aged 66, grandfather of C. S. Anjemeyer, died about two miles south of Leetonia, Sunday morning. Funeral Tuesday afternoon.

A. L. Taylor, wife and son were in Lisbon Sunday at the home of his grand uncle and aunt, Jason and Mary Green, who are approaching their century mark.

Miss Barbara Rhodes of Allegheny, after spending a week with her mother in Greenford, visited here over Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Alice Eyster.

Miss Jane Platt, a recent arrival from England, and William Sommerville of Salem, were quietly married at Lisbon by Squire John McVicker on the 2nd of this month.

Mrs. Louise Vignon and son Paul, Mrs. Frances Grim, Mrs. Augusta Piller and Mrs. Chas. Vignon were in Youngstown Saturday shopping with Dispatch advertisers.

Myron Davis and J. L. Fitzpatrick have had gas introduced into their dwellings and will be fitted by J. E. Gilbert. Mrs. Alice Eyster and C. H. Welkart were fitted up Saturday.

A petition for the pardon of Harry Schmick was circulated here last week and in the churches of Leetonia the Sunday previous. People now think that Harry should be set at liberty.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General De Graw, who has supervision of rural routes, suggests the advisability of labeling Christmas presents "not to be opened until Christmas day," and sending them several days in advance.

The most pathetic and logical account of the mine disaster at Cherry, Ill., we have yet seen appeared in last week's issue of the Appeal to Reason, published at Girard, Kan., written by Charles Lincoln Phifer a native of Cherry.

There is talk of re-opening the McKinley mine at Beloit.

The cold wave struck us in time to help along with butchering.

The total amount of bills allowed at the last three regular meetings of council is $100.00.

All lovers of good vocal music will bear the Welsh choir in Salem Dec. 20; benefit of hospital fund.

Chief Inspector of Mines, Geo. Harrison, has my thanks for a printed copy of his last annual report.

James Atkinson killed a 425-pound hog Wednesday. Boys of the primary room took the bladder for a football.

The slot machines have been ordered out of this village. Is there anything else that could be ordered out?

Mrs. Caroline Boone of Winona, a sister of Thos. Heaton of this place, was operated upon for cancer in a Cleveland hospital this week.

Mrs. Geo. Schaefer has reached Montrose, Col., in sight of Pike's Peak, where she will spend the winter for the benefit of her health. She sent a large package of post card scenes of that country to her parents, Chas. DeJano and wife.

W. H. McCoy of Marshall, Ill., was here Tuesday collecting facts and suggestions as to recent mine explosions in this vicinity. He came by authority, and the result of his findings will be used in shaping legislation to prevent a repetition of the explosion at Cherry mine.

Percy Tellow went to Columbus Tuesday morning to attend a meeting of the state mining commission, whose report is expected to be made to Gov. Harmon in time to lay before the legislature the first Monday of January. Mrs. Tellow accompanied her husband to the capital city for a few days' visit.

Mrs. Sam. Vaughn has returned from Sedalia, Mo., while her husband is putting in boilers at Memphis, Tenn. He writes that they are picking coal there and that his crew caught a 150-pound turtle. Thos. Vaughn has returned to Seattle from the interior of the state of Washington and Idaho, where he has been farming and hunting.

James Paisley, a bright pupil of the high school, reached his 15th birthday Wednesday, and in the evening Sup. Freed and many male pupils of the school worked an agreeable surprise by calling in a body. Miss Jeanette Maxwell served an appetizing lunch and an enjoyable time was had. His sister, Mrs. Chas. Orr, and daughter Elizabeth from Columbiana were among the guests.

The Ohio Coal & Clay Co., operating Fairview mine north of town, has leased coal lands from Anthony Westler, Jonas Knopp, D. L. Weaver, Chris and Henry Lehman, Hector and John D. R. Lehman, being about 600 acres in all. This company has always been on good terms with its employees and has been operating its mines when other mines were idle. This lease of coal lands guarantees a prolonged life for "old reliable Fairview," and a basis upon which to predicate hopes for our business men. Most of the stockholders here are practical miners who know how much labor to exact from their men. Harry Ellisman is the business manager and resides in Greenford. His father, John Ellisman, is a resident of Leetonia. J. N. Paisley, the Welkarts and others reside here. Here is hoping that Fairview will continue along the line of prosperity.

Council met in regular session Tuesday night with all members present except Wm. T. Smith and Mayor Moore. J. C. Welkart was authorized to have the council chamber plumbed for gas lighting and heating. The master of building a house for the fire engine was freed by discussion. The committee reported that he had the 12 small extinguishers at the following places about town:

Jubal Tellow, Wm. Holt, Jos. Barrow, Alonzo Culler, R. W. Boston, Ralph Brink, Wm. Dairymple, Howard Russell, Ed. Lewis, E. E. Warner, W. A. Cox and Thos. Andrew. Attorney Warren was present and was authorized to draft a "depository ordinance" for the village funds, to be passed at an adjourned session next Monday night at 6 o'clock. Before adjournment the following bills were ordered paid:

Harvey Baker, on street light team $2.50

Ryan Roller, " " " " 1.50

Sam. Washington, " " " " 1.50

Wm. Holt, " " " " 1.50

Ed. Roller, " " " " 1.50

Jacob Smith, " " " " 1.50

Clas. Frederick, " " " " 1.50

Mont. Welkart, " " " " 1.50

John A. Welkart, " " " " 1.50

Legal Blank Co., Mayor's docket, 7.50

E. E. Langlois, express, 1.50

Nat. Gas Co., gas, 1.50

C. H. Stephens, 40 gal. extinguishers, 125.00

Alonzo Culler, " " " " 12.00

Thos. Dairymple, special police, 12.00

Willard DeJano, " " " " 6.00

J. C. Welkart & Son, supplies, 6.00

C. J. Spaholtz, batteries, 3.00

J. D. Ferrall, Dr. Novy General, 12.50

Total, $207.40

MILLVILLE.

DEC. 8—A few from here attended the second lecture of Salem's course by Jacob A. Rile, New York's reformer and co-worker with ex-president Roosevelt.

Ralph Schnurrenberger and wife and Walter Kenrich of Gettysburg and Miss Helen Arner were guests at dinner at Walter Callahan's Sunday.

William Herron, wife and daughter Helen are spending a few days in Canton.

Some of our young folks attended the Lutheran chickenpie supper and bazaar in Greenford, Saturday night.

Our Sunday school and C. E. society are making arrangements for a Christmas entertainment Dec. 25.

Miss Tillie Herron of Salem is spending a week here with relatives.

Walter Callahan has sold a portion of his farm to Curtis Howell.

William Barber of near Salem visited friends here Sunday.

The Larkin Club of Ten met at the home of Mrs. C. D. Arner today.

Telephone service was crippled today because of broken wires.

Canfield Keeps On The Map.

(Lisbon Daily Patriot.)

The Canfield Dispatch is installing a standard model typewriter machine in its office. The big Mahoning metropolis got away with the court house at Canfield and the fates seem to conspire to push the town off the map but it can't be done so long as Charley Fowler and the Dispatch keep going. And with one of the new innovations in composition, the surrounding metropolis forces had better keep an ear to the ground for rumblings from Canfield.

Mr. Hata, a less than cost price for Christmas. Mrs. B. E. Schaffner, Washingtonville, O.

Lynn Street.

DEC. 8—Miss Louise Crum spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Ruth Bush.

Wm. Schaeffer and Mr. Styer of Youngstown spent Saturday at L. W. Rothgeb's.

Work on the macadam roads is progressing nicely.

Misses Cecelia and Bertha Paris spent Saturday with Miss Edith Lynn.

Wm. Rhodes, who is employed as fireman by the Canfield Lumber Co., was home Saturday working for Billy.

Allen Peters purchased a fine shepherd pup.

Ed. Sprinkle is getting out timber to build an addition to his barn.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Peters and granddaughter, Gladys Rhodes, spent Sunday evening at L. W. Rothgeb's.

Miss Ella Koenreich of New Buffalo passed through here Sunday evening.

Roy Fink, wife and daughter Josephine spent Sunday at Glen DeCamp's in Austintown.

One night recently a sneak thief entered Lewis Peters' cellar and carried away 24 quarts of fruit. If this practice should continue it may make work for a surgeon picking shot.

Mrs. Roy Fink and Mrs. Clark Lower spent Thursday in Youngstown.

Last Saturday being Miss Ruth Bush's twelfth birthday a number of schoolmates and friends gave her a pleasant surprise. The afternoon was spent in games and at 4 o'clock Mrs. Bush served a fine supper, after which the guests departed wishing Miss Ruth many more happy birthdays.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Apple Avenue.

DEC. 8—Miss Helen Long of Goshen is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Harvey Goodman.

C. D. Bowman of Hickory was on the Avenue Tuesday.

B. L. Manchester and wife spent Sunday with friends in Leetonia.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Chickens have again made its appearance on the street. Miss Edith and Master Ward Lynn being confined to the house with the disease.

Chas. Harroff did some carpenter work for Ed. Sprinkle last week.

Toots Corners.

DEC. 9—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Coy, Sunday, an 8 1/2 pound baby boy and to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Winans Monday a baby girl.

Mrs. Albert Sigle on Dec. 2 and Mervin Moore on Dec. 4 were each given a shower of 46 post cards.

Mrs. and Mrs. Clark Baird visited at Elijah Goodman's Sunday.